

Preliminary Schedule of Events, 2017-8

(subject to change, with more events to be announced)

All events to be held in the PC Theater unless otherwise stated. Out of respect to presenters and the audience, doors for CHAP events will be closed 10 minutes after start of event, or when the theater reaches capacity.

Friday, September 15th, 7-8 p.m.

Court Roper, J.D.

Constitution Day Event - Origin Stories: How Constitutional History Should Shape Today's Discourse

Friday, September 29th, 7-8 p.m.

Doug Hansen

Art Professor, CSU-Fresno

Illustrating Magical California

Book signing to follow

Friday, October 13th, 1-3 p.m.

Serena Valentino and Landry Q. Walker, Writers

Workshop for Aspiring Writers of Comics, Graphic Novels, and Novels

(Limited Seats Available, Details to Follow)

Friday, October 13th, 7-8 p.m.

Serena Valentino and Landry Q. Walker, Writers

Telling Tales of Horror, Romance, Humor, and Adventure: A Discussion of Writing Comics, Graphic Novels, and Novels

Book signing to follow in student center

Friday, November 3rd, 7-8 p.m.

Jay Hargis

History Professor, Porterville College

Martin Luther & the Birth of Protestantism 1517: A Retelling of Christianity

Friday, November 17th, 7-8 p.m.

Dydia Delyser

Geography Professor, CSU-Fullerton

'Ramona' Memories: Mythology and Tourism in the Shaping of Southern California

Friday, February 9th, 7-8 p.m.

Terry Ommen

Author and Local Historian

Wild Tulare County: Outlaws, Rogues & Rebels

Book signing to follow

Friday, March 2nd, 7-8 p.m.

Ann Gibbons

Science Writer & Journalist

Sole Survivor: The Story of Modern Human Origins

(PC Distinguished Speaker in Anthropology 2017-8)

Wednesday, March 14th, 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Connie Gutierrez, Porterville College Professor of Spanish

Jay Hargis, Porterville College Professor of History

The 10th Muse: Sor Juana De la Cruz, Poetess and Feminist in Colonial Mexico

Friday, April 6th, 7-9 p.m.

Dixie Salazar

Artist & Writer

"...and Homeless Near a Thousand Homes I Stood": One Woman Show (7-8 p.m.) and Art Gallery Reception (8-9 p.m.)