CAMPUS COMMUNICATIONS

Porterville college has a variety of tools to communicate with the public in the event of an emergency. Depending on the type of emergency, we may use some or all of the following tools to communicate with faculty, staff and students:

- Emergency web site- You may want to bookmark this emergency web site because it is updated with information during actual emergencies or campus closures.
- Local Press and Social Media -Porterville college's communications staff sends emergency information to the press and update social media with public safety messages. The campus depends A great deal on the press and social media to keep students, faculty, and staff informed during campus emergencies.
- Text Alerts - The campus community can receive emergency text messages to their cell phone via PC alert.
- Campus Group E-mail - During emergencies, PC alert sends an "urgent" group e-mail to every student, faculty and staff member. The e-mail directs individuals to the emergency web site for additional information and instruction.
- Office/classroom telephones - This tool broadcasts and leaves A voice message on classroom, faculty, and staff member's office phone on campus.
